

In addition to my role as a faculty member at Yale, I am engaged in a number of outside activities.

1. I serve as the executive editor of the Financial Analysts Journal.
2. I serve on the board of the Jeffrey Company, a private investment company.
3. Within the last five years I have testified as an expert witness in cases involving the financial industry. These include cases related to mortgage-backed securities on behalf of Credit Suisse.
4. I serve on the board of Hamden Hall Country Day School.
5. I serve on the board of X3 Acquisition Corp. Ltd. a publicly listed company.
6. I periodically receive compensation for lectures outside of Yale and service as a referee or reviewer.
